

Requirements for ICCR Observers

Process:

1. To attend the ICCR Annual Meeting as an Observer, a regulator must request participation in a letter to the current ICCR Chair no later than 3 months before the date of the meeting.
2. To participate in an ICCR Working Group, an ICCR Observer regulator must request participation in a letter to the current ICCR Chair no later than 1 month after attending the ICCR Annual Meeting. The regulator may request participation in the next ICCR Annual Meeting in the same letter.
3. ICCR Observers may be invited to participate in quarterly regulator-industry teleconferences.
4. To transition from ICCR Observer to Member, see “Process for ICCR Observer to Transition to ICCR Steering Committee Member” posted on the ICCR website.

Priority to be confirmed as an ICCR Observer will be based on the following:

1. The regulator represents the regulatory authority that has a structure in place for cosmetics, including a definition of “cosmetic” that is aligned with that of the current ICCR Steering Committee Members.
2. The jurisdiction has a recognized representation (i.e. trade association(s)) for the cosmetic industry to act as a link for dialogue with the private sector and to provide industry/consumer advocacy data, information, and opinions during teleconferences, working group meetings, and the ICCR Annual Meeting.
3. Early submission due to potential meeting space limitations for the ICCR Annual Meeting.
